Numb. 11201.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 30, to Tuesday December 3, 1771.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Advice has been received from His Majesty's Consul-General at Lisbon, that, on Sunday the 27th of October last, there came on Shore near Peniche, in the Kingdom of Portugal, a Wreck, having on Board no living Creature, with some Pipes of Wine and Brandy on Board, which Goods are safe under the Care of the Custom-House at Peniche. Any Person who may suppose himself concerned therein, may, on applying to my Office, and describing the Marks of his Goods, be satisfied whether they are any of those Goods which are mentioned to have been saved.

ROCHFORD.

Berlin, November 23. The Winter is already begun here; it has frozen very hard these three Nights past, and Yesterday and this Day a good Deal of Snow has fallen.

Copenhagen, November 23. Orders are issued, directing all Vessels coming from the Baltick, and from any Ports in the Mediterranean, to perform the strictest Quarantine, with all the usual Precautions in such Cases.

Hague, November 29. Yesterday and this Day have been set apart here for celebrating the Birth-day of the young Princess of Orange.

The Viscount d'Herreria and his Lady arrived here last Night from Russia, and he has this Morning presented his Credentials to the President of the Week, as Minister Plenipotentiary from his Catholick Majesty to the States-General.

Their High Mightinesses, on Account of the Dearness of Provisions, have forbidden, under severe Penalties, the Exportation of Potatoes from their Territories, for the Space of one Year.
